

Home School Partners – High School 1B: Civics, Week 10: Quiz 3

- _____ 1. An example of the idea of law as a negative would be a law that forces someone to pay to _____.
 (A) hire somebody (B) fix a person's car he wrecks (C) attend church services (D) go to school
- _____ 2. Socialist writers view mankind as divided into two parts: ____ and _____.
 (A) rich, poor (B) voters, non-voters (C) employers, employees (D) people in general, themselves
- _____ 3. When a person says, "The government should stay out of education," what does a typical socialist say?
 (A) "I agree with you 100 percent!" (C) "I can't believe you're against education!"
 (B) "Education is a form of plunder!" (D) "Government shouldn't be involved in education!"
- _____ 4. Socialists generally believe that mankind in general is ____, and politicians/government employees are ____.
 (A) evil, righteous (B) evil, evil (C) righteous, evil (D) righteous, righteous
- _____ 5. Socialists credit a nation's growth, happiness, and culture almost entirely to _____.
 (A) God (B) the people (C) families (D) rulers (E) essential oils
- _____ 6. In The Law, Bastiat calls the viewpoint of socialists "awful," because they believe that people are _____.
 (A) objects for politicians to rule (B) independent (C) generous (D) very knowledgeable
- _____ 7. The proper and just function of government is to _____.
 (A) guarantee fair employment (B) organize religion (C) prevent injustice (D) provide for the people
- _____ 8. An example of legal plunder (not ILLEGAL plunder) would be a law that _____.
 (A) pays for a library (B) punishes a thief (C) jails a murderer (D) makes someone pay for car damage
- _____ 9. What happens, generally, when the law acts as a charity, giving away money to some citizens?
 (A) Citizens give more happily. (B) Fairness grows. (C) Justice is weakened. (D) Justice increases.
- _____ 10. Christians should disregard a government law that _____.
 (A) they believe is unfair (B) violates God's Word (C) both A & B (D) neither A nor B
- _____ 11. The Declaration of Independence includes three main sections that include everything except _____.
 (A) amendments (B) an introduction (C) a statement that the U. S. is free (D) protests against the king
- _____ 12. gov't takeover of much of a nation's economy A. communism
- _____ 13. rule by a majority B. constitutional republic
- _____ 14. gov't by representatives, limited by written laws C. democracy
- _____ 15. gov't rule marked by violence and threats D. fascism
- _____ 16. general term for gov't that controls, taxes, and dominates E. socialism
- _____ 17. law written and passed by a lawmaking body A. natural law
- _____ 18. law spread by judges and more likely to protect rights B. statutory law
- _____ 19. law recognized by all mankind as right and just C. common law
20. Why does democracy fail to succeed as a workable, just form of government?
21. Give an example of how a Christian's suing another Christian could have a negative result.
22. Why can't socialism possibly work as a way of running an economy?
23. Why do some people mistakenly think statutory law is inherently better than common law or natural law?
24. From whom does the Declaration of Independence say governments get their powers, instead of from God?
25. When a judge makes a decision on a case, why should he not just base his decision upon precedent?

BONUS (+5): The Bible says in Romans 13:3 that the purpose of the law is to be a "_____ to _____."

Home School Partners – High School 1B: Civics, Week 10: Quiz 3

- B 1. An example of the idea of law as a negative would be a law that forces someone to pay to ____.
(A) hire somebody (B) fix a person's car he wrecks (C) attend church services (D) go to school
- D 2. Socialist writers view mankind as divided into two parts: ____ and ____.
(A) rich, poor (B) voters, non-voters (C) employers, employees (D) people in general, themselves
- C 3. When a person says, "The government should stay out of education," what does a typical socialist say?
(A) "I agree with you 100 percent!" (C) "I can't believe you're against education!"
(B) "Education is a form of plunder!" (D) "Government shouldn't be involved in education!"
- A 4. Socialists generally believe that mankind in general is ____, and politicians/government employees are ____.
(A) evil, righteous (B) evil, evil (C) righteous, evil (D) righteous, righteous
- D 5. Socialists credit a nation's growth, happiness, and culture almost entirely to ____.
(A) God (B) the people (C) families (D) rulers (E) essential oils
- A 6. In The Law, Bastiat calls the viewpoint of socialists "awful," because they believe that people are ____.
(A) objects for politicians to rule (B) independent (C) generous (D) very knowledgeable
- C 7. The proper and just function of government is to ____.
(A) guarantee fair employment (B) organize religion (C) prevent injustice (D) provide for the people
- A 8. An example of legal plunder (not ILLEGAL plunder) would be a law that ____.
(A) pays for a library (B) punishes a thief (C) jails a murderer (D) makes someone pay for car damage
- C 9. What happens, generally, when the law acts as a charity, giving away money to some citizens?
(A) Citizens give more happily. (B) Fairness grows. (C) Justice is weakened. (D) Justice increases.
- B 10. Christians should disregard a government law that ____.
(A) they believe is unfair (B) violates God's Word (C) both A & B (D) neither A nor B
- A 11. The Declaration of Independence includes three main sections that include everything except ____.
(A) amendments (B) an introduction (C) a statement that the U. S. is free (D) protests against the king
- E 12. gov't takeover of much of a nation's economy A. communism
- C 13. rule by a majority B. constitutional republic
- B 14. gov't by representatives, limited by written laws C. democracy
- A 15. gov't rule marked by violence and threats D. fascism
- D 16. general term for gov't that controls, taxes, and dominates E. socialism
- B 17. law written and passed by a lawmaking body A. natural law
- C 18. law spread by judges and more likely to protect rights B. statutory law
- A 19. law recognized by all mankind as right and just C. common law
20. Why does democracy fail to succeed as a workable, just form of government?
Majorities aren't reliable; they tend to violate the rights of the minority.
21. Give an example of how a Christian's suing another Christian could have a negative result.
Answers will vary.
22. Why can't socialism possibly work as a way of running an economy?
Government leaders can't possibly know how to make economic decisions for millions of people daily.
23. Why do some people mistakenly think statutory law is inherently better than common law or natural law?
Because it's written down and passed by a legislature.
24. From whom does the Declaration of Independence say governments get their powers, instead of from God?
from the people
25. When a judge makes a decision on a case, why should he not just base his decision upon precedent?
Because previous judges' decisions might be wrong; the judge should rule justly, regardless of precedent.
- BONUS (+5): The Bible says in Romans 13:3 that the purpose of the law is to be a "TERROR to EVIL."