

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 2A

- _____ 1. What most often happens when people are victims of injustice?
A. They withdraw from society and avoid conflict.
B. They rise up against it.
C. They accept it as necessary for order.
D. They rely only on courts for relief.
- _____ 2. When plundered groups attempt political influence, what are the two main options?
A. revolution or obedience
B. protest or silence
C. education or ignorance
D. stop plunder or benefit from it
- _____ 3. Which of the following actions fits the proper role of law?
A. using tax revenue to provide free college education to students
B. a program that provides extra income for poor families
C. using the police and courts to penalize individuals who cause injuries to others
D. a policy that taxes millionaires at a higher percentage than others
- _____ 4. Why do many people assume unjust laws must be acceptable?
A. They fear punishment for disobedience.
B. They trust political leaders without question.
C. They believe legality automatically means justice.
D. All of these
- _____ 5. When the law contradicts morality, citizens' internal conflict forces them to choose between _____.
A. loyalty and freedom
B. respect for the law and their conscience
C. equality and justice
D. faith and reason
- _____ 6. People who question plundering laws are often _____.
A. praised as patriots
B. welcomed as reformers
C. accepted as loyal citizens
D. dismissed as dangerous rebels
- _____ 7. If the law were limited to its proper role, what would happen to voting disputes?
A. They would become more intense.
B. They would remain the same.
C. They would mostly lose importance.
D. They would be solved in the courts.
- _____ 8. What is the proper function of law?
A. redistributing wealth more fairly among the people
B. promoting equality in social status, so no one is "above" anyone else
C. protecting individuals' life, liberty, and property
D. all of these
- _____ 9. What danger does the "natural-born citizen" requirement of U. S. Presidents aim to prevent?
A. foreign invasion
B. economic hardship
C. divided loyalty
D. none of these
- _____ 10. What ultimately happens when lawful plunder spreads?
A. Justice increases.
B. Equality improves.
C. Prosperity increases.
D. Injustice multiplies.

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 2A (ANSWER KEY)

- B 1. What most often happens when people are victims of injustice?
A. They withdraw from society and avoid conflict.
B. They rise up against it.
C. They accept it as necessary for order.
D. They rely only on courts for relief.
- D 2. When plundered groups attempt political influence, what are the two main options?
A. revolution or obedience
B. protest or silence
C. education or ignorance
D. stop plunder or benefit from it
- C 3. Which of the following actions fits the proper role of law?
A. using tax revenue to provide free college education to students
B. a program that provides extra income for poor families
C. using the police and courts to penalize individuals who cause injuries to others
D. a policy that taxes millionaires at a higher percentage than others
- C 4. Why do many people assume unjust laws must be acceptable?
A. They fear punishment for disobedience.
B. They trust political leaders without question.
C. They believe legality automatically means justice.
D. All of these
- B 5. When the law contradicts morality, citizens' internal conflict forces them to choose between ____.
A. loyalty and freedom
B. respect for the law and their conscience
C. equality and justice
D. faith and reason
- D 6. People who question plundering laws are often ____.
A. praised as patriots
B. welcomed as reformers
C. accepted as loyal citizens
D. dismissed as dangerous rebels
- C 7. If the law were limited to its proper role, what would happen to voting disputes?
A. They would become more intense.
B. They would remain the same.
C. They would mostly lose importance.
D. They would be solved in the courts.
- C 8. What is the proper function of law?
A. redistributing wealth more fairly among the people
B. promoting equality in social status, so no one is "above" anyone else
C. protecting individuals' life, liberty, and property
D. all of these
- C 9. What danger does the "natural-born citizen" requirement of U. S. Presidents aim to prevent?
A. foreign invasion
B. economic hardship
C. divided loyalty
D. none of these
- C 10. What ultimately happens when lawful plunder spreads?
A. Justice increases.
B. Equality improves.
C. Prosperity increases.
D. Injustice multiplies.

