

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 2B

- _____ 1. Which government action is a proper function of the law?
A. forcing an attacker to pay for his victim's medical bills
B. paying for a program to help sixth graders learn to read
C. helping the poor pay for medical care
D. building new public libraries for local communities
- _____ 2. Why did the Founders restrict the presidency to natural-born citizens?
A. to limit voting participation
B. to prevent divided national loyalty
C. to make sure that elections were fair
D. to strengthen the powers of Congress
- _____ 3. The Thirteenth Amendment, the first out of three related ones, gave former slaves _____.
A. the right to vote (males)
B. U. S. citizenship
C. their freedom
D. none of these
- _____ 4. In simple terms, what does "subject to the jurisdiction" mean?
A. paying taxes to the government
B. obeying local customs
C. living within a particular nation's borders
D. being under a certain government's authority
- _____ 5. According to the traditional view, whose authority governs a child of foreign parents?
A. the state where the child was born
B. the United States government
C. the parents' home nation
D. the highest court system in that state
- _____ 6. What term is used for children born in the U.S. to illegal immigrants?
A. naturalized citizens
B. dual nationals
C. resident aliens
D. anchor babies
- _____ 7. Hebrews 11 describes faithful Christian believers on earth as _____.
A. strangers and pilgrims
B. rulers over nations
C. social reformers
D. citizens of earth
- _____ 8. According to Ephesians, believers become fellowcitizens with whom?
A. their nation
B. their neighbors
C. the saints
D. their families
- _____ 9. What did Jesus say about His kingdom?
A. It would overthrow Rome.
B. It is not of this world.
C. It belonged only to Israel.
D. all of these
- _____ 10. An example of legal plunder would be if the government _____.
A. took taxes to fund police and court systems
B. paid for housing for elderly individuals
C. punished a company that stole money from investors
D. paid for a military that defended the nation from invaders

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 2B (ANSWER KEY)

- A 1. Which government action is a proper function of the law?
A. forcing an attacker to pay for his victim's medical bills
B. paying for a program to help sixth graders learn to read
C. helping the poor pay for medical care
D. building new public libraries for local communities
- B 2. Why did the Founders restrict the presidency to natural-born citizens?
A. to limit voting participation
B. to prevent divided national loyalty
C. to make sure that elections were fair
D. to strengthen the powers of Congress
- C 3. The Thirteenth Amendment, the first out of three related ones, gave former slaves _____.
A. the right to vote (males)
B. U. S. citizenship
C. their freedom
D. none of these
- D 4. In simple terms, what does "subject to the jurisdiction" mean?
A. paying taxes to the government
B. obeying local customs
C. living within a particular nation's borders
D. being under a certain government's authority
- C 5. According to the traditional view, whose authority governs a child of foreign parents?
A. the state where the child was born
B. the United States government
C. the parents' home nation
D. the highest court system in that state
- D 6. What term is used for children born in the U.S. to illegal immigrants?
A. naturalized citizens
B. dual nationals
C. resident aliens
D. anchor babies
- A 7. Hebrews 11 describes faithful Christian believers on earth as _____.
A. strangers and pilgrims
B. rulers over nations
C. social reformers
D. citizens of earth
- C 8. According to Ephesians, believers become fellowcitizens with whom?
A. their nation
B. their neighbors
C. the saints
D. their families
- B 9. What did Jesus say about His kingdom?
A. It would overthrow Rome.
B. It is not of this world.
C. It belonged only to Israel.
D. all of these
- B 10. An example of legal plunder would be if the government _____.
A. took taxes to fund police and court systems
B. paid for housing for elderly individuals
C. punished a company that stole money from investors
D. paid for a military that defended the nation from invaders