

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 3A

- _____ 1. According to Genesis 6–9, why did God establish civil authority after the Flood?
- A. to regulate worship
 - B. to respond to widespread violence
 - C. to equalize wealth
 - D. to enforce religious morality
- _____ 2. Genesis 9:5–6 teaches that government has authority to ____.
- A. protect private property
 - B. judge sinful thoughts
 - C. execute capital punishment
 - D. provide charity
- _____ 3. In Romans 13, the word translated evil refers primarily to ____.
- A. unbelief
 - B. sins against other individuals
 - C. angry or unforgiving attitudes
 - D. harmful actions
- _____ 4. Which action best reflects a biblically good government?
- A. punishing theft and assault
 - B. outlawing prejudice
 - C. enforcing church attendance
 - D. all of these
- _____ 5. Romans 13:4 describes rulers as ____.
- A. religious leaders
 - B. planners of society
 - C. ministers of God
 - D. moral instructors
- _____ 6. Which action would violate the biblical purpose of government?
- A. stopping kidnapping
 - B. punishing murder
 - C. protecting someone's car
 - D. punishing hatred
- _____ 7. Which policy best illustrates legal plunder?
- A. stealing a candy bar from a store
 - B. laws enforcing contracts between individuals
 - C. government-provided medical care for the elderly
 - D. punishing someone who breaks into a house
- _____ 8. Which action fits both Romans 13 and Bastiat's view of law?
- A. punishing robbery
 - B. providing for education
 - C. correcting immoral thoughts
 - D. all of these
- _____ 9. Why does Bastiat say plunder spreads once allowed?
- A. Groups seek to organize it for their own benefit.
 - B. It discourages an obsession with politics and voting.
 - C. It reduces the need for taxation.
 - D. It eliminates conflict between the rich and poor.
- _____ 10. Which statement best summarizes the proper role of government?
- A. Require observance of Christian practices
 - B. Punish harm and protect life, liberty, and property.
 - C. Provide as equal of outcomes as possible for those who are employed.
 - D. Help individuals with daily life decisions.

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 3A (ANSWER KEY)

- B 1. According to Genesis 6–9, why did God establish civil authority after the Flood?
- to regulate worship
 - to respond to widespread violence
 - to equalize wealth
 - to enforce religious morality
- C 2. Genesis 9:5–6 teaches that government has authority to ____.
- protect private property
 - judge sinful thoughts
 - execute capital punishment
 - provide charity
- D 3. In Romans 13, the word translated evil refers primarily to ____.
- unbelief
 - sins against other individuals
 - angry or unforgiving attitudes
 - harmful actions
- A 4. Which action best reflects a biblically good government?
- punishing theft and assault
 - outlawing prejudice
 - enforcing church attendance
 - all of these
- C 5. Romans 13:4 describes rulers as ____.
- | | |
|--|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> religious leaders planners of society | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> ministers of God moral instructors |
|--|---|
- D 6. Which action would violate the biblical purpose of government?
- | | |
|---|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> stopping kidnapping punishing murder | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> protecting someone's car punishing hatred |
|---|--|
- C 7. Which policy best illustrates legal plunder?
- stealing a candy bar from a store
 - laws enforcing contracts between individuals
 - government-provided medical care for the elderly
 - punishing someone who breaks into a house
- A 8. Which action fits both Romans 13 and Bastiat's view of law?
- punishing robbery
 - providing for education
 - correcting immoral thoughts
 - all of these
- A 9. Why does Bastiat say plunder spreads once allowed?
- Groups seek to organize it for their own benefit.
 - It discourages an obsession with politics and voting.
 - It reduces the need for taxation.
 - It eliminates conflict between the rich and poor.
- B 10. Which statement best summarizes the proper role of government?
- Require observance of Christian practices
 - Punish harm and protect life, liberty, and property.
 - Provide as equal of outcomes as possible for those who are employed.
 - Help individuals with daily life decisions.