

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 4A

- _____ 1. Which option is an example of plunder?
- A. government-directed charity
 - B. tariffs to protect businesses
 - C. state-funded elementary schools
 - D. all of these
- _____ 2. The phrase “Law is organized justice” means the law should ____.
- A. make citizens morally good
 - B. promote equality of outcomes
 - C. protect property rights
 - D. help the poor find jobs
- _____ 3. Why does Bastiat argue that the law cannot organize certain areas in society?
- A. Using force in these areas destroys justice.
 - B. These tasks are too complicated for governments.
 - C. Citizens would resist attempts at organizing them.
 - D. Government officials lack expertise in these areas.
- _____ 4. Legal plunder is defined as ____.
- A. theft that law enforcement doesn’t catch
 - B. wealth taken via government action
 - C. the law preventing and punishing theft
 - D. all of these
- _____ 5. The law should remain “negative” in its function so it can ____.
- A. discourage too many voters from participating
 - B. prevent injustice rather than impose plans
 - C. promote equality among citizens and residents
 - D. avoid errors when it plans out the economy
- _____ 6. When the law goes beyond preventing harm, it ____.
- A. makes citizens dependent upon the government
 - B. strengthens liberty for residents of that nation
 - C. encourages creative thinking and improvement in society
 - D. protects morality
- _____ 7. Christians are commanded to submit to government ____.
- A. when laws are just
 - B. under Christian or righteous rulers
 - C. for the Lord’s sake
 - D. as long as taxes don’t become excessive
- _____ 8. Which duty always overrides obedience to earthly rulers?
- A. injustice of laws
 - B. obedience to God
 - C. public opinion
 - D. all of these
- _____ 9. Which example is not an example of “speaking evil” of rulers?
- A. ridiculing an official’s appearance
 - B. wishing harm upon a senator
 - C. calling a governor a “moron”
 - D. declaring that a judge is “wrong”
- _____ 10. Which action is a legitimate function of government?
- A. providing housing for local senior citizens
 - B. punishing a company that sells faulty tires
 - C. forcing a restaurant to take customers of all “races”
 - D. all of these

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 4A (ANSWER KEY)

- D 1. Which option is an example of plunder?
- A. government-directed charity
 B. tariffs to protect businesses
 C. state-funded elementary schools
D. all of these
- C 2. The phrase “Law is organized justice” means the law should ____.
- A. make citizens morally good C. protect property rights
 B. promote equality of outcomes D. help the poor find jobs
- A 3. Why does Bastiat argue that the law cannot organize certain areas in society?
- A. Using force in these areas destroys justice.
 B. These tasks are too complicated for governments.
 C. Citizens would resist attempts at organizing them.
 D. Government officials lack expertise in these areas.
- B 4. Legal plunder is defined as ____.
- A. theft that law enforcement doesn’t catch
B. wealth taken via government action
 C. the law preventing and punishing theft
 D. all of these
- B 5. The law should remain “negative” in its function so it can ____.
- A. discourage too many voters from participating
B. prevent injustice rather than impose plans
 C. promote equality among citizens and residents
 D. avoid errors when it plans out the economy
- A 6. When the law goes beyond preventing harm, it ____.
- A. makes citizens dependent upon the government
 B. strengthens liberty for residents of that nation
 C. encourages creative thinking and improvement in society
 D. protects morality
- C 7. Christians are commanded to submit to government ____.
- A. when laws are just
 B. under Christian or righteous rulers
C. for the Lord’s sake
 D. as long as taxes don’t become excessive
- B 8. Which duty always overrides obedience to earthly rulers?
- A. injustice of laws C. public opinion
B. obedience to God D. all of these
- D 9. Which example is not an example of “speaking evil” of rulers?
- A. ridiculing an official’s appearance
 B. wishing harm upon a senator
 C. calling a governor a “moron”
D. declaring that a judge is “wrong”
- B 10. Which action is a legitimate function of government?
- A. providing housing for local senior citizens
B. punishing a company that sells faulty tires
 C. forcing a restaurant to take customers of all “races”
 D. all of these