

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 5B

- _____ 1. Bastiat says that politicians who try to fix inequality should look first to see if it came from ____.
- A. poor leadership
 - B. trade problems
 - C. legal plunder
 - D. a lack of education
- _____ 2. Why is using law to enforce charity considered plunder?
- A. It lowers taxes.
 - B. It uses force to transfer property.
 - C. It discourages work.
 - D. It is inefficient.
- _____ 3. When opponents reject state-run education, socialists claim that they (the opponents) reject ____.
- A. knowledge
 - B. children
 - C. teachers
 - D. all education
- _____ 4. A republic protects liberty better because changes to law require ____.
- A. approval by more church leaders
 - B. immediate voting by many citizens
 - C. much debate and representation
 - D. all of these
- _____ 5. Originally, U. S. Senators were chosen by ____.
- A. Congress
 - B. state legislatures
 - C. the President
 - D. a majority of voters
- _____ 6. Law used to promote morality is absurd because law is ____.
- A. expensive
 - B. unpopular
 - C. force
 - D. too slow
- _____ 7. A “fake republic” often uses the name to ____.
- A. promote democracy
 - B. show national pride
 - C. hide tyranny
 - D. encourage voting
- _____ 8. Acts 2 does NOT support socialism, because the giving in that passage was ____.
- A. only temporary
 - B. required by law
 - C. supervised by Rome
 - D. voluntary charity
- _____ 9. Communism differs from socialism mainly in its (communism’s) greater use of ____.
- A. educational institutions
 - B. frequent elections
 - C. free trade laws
 - D. violence and force
- _____ 10. Many individuals support the idea of socialism because it ____.
- A. limits government
 - B. sounds compassionate and fair
 - C. reduces taxes on business
 - D. promotes more individuality

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 5B

- A 1. Bastiat says that politicians who try to fix inequality should look first to see if it came from ____.
- A. poor leadership
 - B. trade problems
 - C. legal plunder
 - D. a lack of education
- B 2. Why is using law to enforce charity considered plunder?
- A. It lowers taxes.
 - B. It uses force to transfer property.
 - C. It discourages work.
 - D. It is inefficient.
- D 3. When opponents reject state-run education, socialists claim that they (the opponents) reject ____.
- A. knowledge
 - B. children
 - C. teachers
 - D. all education
- C 4. A republic protects liberty better because changes to law require ____.
- A. approval by more church leaders
 - B. immediate voting by many citizens
 - C. much debate and representation
 - D. all of these
- B 5. Originally, U. S. Senators were chosen by ____.
- A. Congress
 - B. state legislatures
 - C. the President
 - D. a majority of voters
- C 6. Law used to promote morality is absurd because law is ____.
- A. expensive
 - B. unpopular
 - C. force
 - D. too slow
- C 7. A “fake republic” often uses the name to ____.
- A. promote democracy
 - B. show national pride
 - C. hide tyranny
 - D. encourage voting
- D 8. Acts 2 does NOT support socialism, because the giving in that passage was ____.
- A. only temporary
 - B. required by law
 - C. supervised by Rome
 - D. voluntary charity
- D 9. Communism differs from socialism mainly in its (communism’s) greater use of ____.
- A. educational institutions
 - B. frequent elections
 - C. free trade laws
 - D. violence and force
- B 10. Many individuals support the idea of socialism because it ____.
- A. limits government
 - B. sounds compassionate and fair
 - C. reduces taxes on business
 - D. promotes more individuality