

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 6A

- _____ 1. Bastiat says the proper role of law is to ____.
- A. promote equality
 - B. prevent injustice
 - C. encourage virtue
 - D. organize society
- _____ 2. Christians should obey laws unless ____.
- A. they are unreasonable
 - B. they involve high taxes
 - C. they are confusing
 - D. they command disobedience to God
- _____ 3. Which is an example of statutory law?
- A. A judge follows an earlier ruling.
 - B. a shared moral custom in a nation
 - C. a written law Congress passes about tax deadlines
 - D. a person's conscience telling him to do the right thing
- _____ 4. Which is an example of common law?
- A. information from a previous case that a judge uses
 - B. a new series of laws created by lawmakers
 - C. a regulation printed in a regulation codebook
 - D. a moral instinct
- _____ 5. The problem mentioned about having thousands of laws is that it creates the problem that ____.
- A. justice becomes less clear
 - B. citizens hesitate to vote
 - C. people might break laws unknowingly
 - D. judges behave more unjustly
- _____ 6. Which action best shows law acting as a “terror to evil”?
- A. ticketing someone for mistakenly parking illegally
 - B. licensing an activity such as fishing or hunting
 - C. regulating a charity that gives out food to the needy
 - D. punishing someone who throws paint on someone's car
- _____ 7. Which of the following describes a precedent?
- A. a prior ruling that influences new cases
 - B. a statutory law recently passed
 - C. a regulation controlling business practices
 - D. a moral belief held by man's conscience
- _____ 8. Natural law teaches that people naturally have rights to ____.
- A. vote and own land
 - B. wealth and success
 - C. liberty, what they own, and their lives
 - D. education and safety
- _____ 9. In the DOI, “Nature's God” is an example of ____.
- A. a legal term
 - B. a reference to King George
 - C. a biblical phrase used by Christian apostles
 - D. non-Christian language for a higher power
- _____ 10. From a Christian viewpoint, what is the problem with the colonists' appeal to revolt?
- A. Britain was not applying the law fairly to the colonists.
 - B. Scripture teaches submission to rulers, even bad ones.
 - C. Taxation was tyrannical, but the percentage was somewhat fair.
 - D. Parliament was ignoring the Biblical true reasons for government.

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 6A (ANSWER KEY)

- B 1. Bastiat says the proper role of law is to ____.
- A. promote equality
 - B. prevent injustice
 - C. encourage virtue
 - D. organize society
- D 2. Christians should obey laws unless ____.
- A. they are unreasonable
 - B. they involve high taxes
 - C. they are confusing
 - D. they command disobedience to God
- C 3. Which is an example of statutory law?
- A. A judge follows an earlier ruling.
 - B. a shared moral custom in a nation
 - C. a written law Congress passes about tax deadlines
 - D. a person's conscience telling him to do the right thing
- A 4. Which is an example of common law?
- A. information from a previous case that a judge uses
 - B. a new series of laws created by lawmakers
 - C. a regulation printed in a regulation codebook
 - D. a moral instinct
- C 5. The problem mentioned about having thousands of laws is that it creates the problem that ____.
- A. justice becomes less clear
 - B. citizens hesitate to vote
 - C. people might break laws unknowingly
 - D. judges behave more unjustly
- D 6. Which action best shows law acting as a “terror to evil”?
- A. ticketing someone for mistakenly parking illegally
 - B. licensing an activity such as fishing or hunting
 - C. regulating a charity that gives out food to the needy
 - D. punishing someone who throws paint on someone's car
- A 7. Which of the following describes a precedent?
- A. a prior ruling that influences new cases
 - B. a statutory law recently passed
 - C. a regulation controlling business practices
 - D. a moral belief held by man's conscience
- C 8. Natural law teaches that people naturally have rights to ____.
- A. vote and own land
 - B. wealth and success
 - C. liberty, what they own, and their lives
 - D. education and safety
- D 9. In the DOI, “Nature's God” is an example of ____.
- A. a legal term
 - B. a reference to King George
 - C. a biblical phrase used by Christian apostles
 - D. non-Christian language for a higher power
- B 10. From a Christian viewpoint, what is the problem with the colonists' appeal to revolt?
- A. Britain was not applying the law fairly to the colonists.
 - B. Scripture teaches submission to rulers, even bad ones.
 - C. Taxation was tyrannical, but the percentage was somewhat fair.
 - D. Parliament was ignoring the Biblical true reasons for government.