

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 9B

- _____ 1. Bastiat’s “Magic Slope” criticism suggests that Blanc’s “incline” is dangerous because it ____.
- A. relies on too much upon giving individuals religious and economic liberty
  - B. requires no laws at all, which is dangerous for society
  - C. eliminates the possibility of any nation growing in any way
  - D. assumes planners can push society toward “happiness” via force
- _____ 2. Bastiat criticizes “socialist democrats” for treating the people as ____.
- A. too ignorant to vote at all
  - B. always too wise to be governed
  - C. always immoral in elections and always wise after
  - D. wise when voting, but stupid after electing a legislator
- _____ 3. Jury nullification is best described as ____.
- A. harsher sentencing of a guilty person
  - B. acquitting an accused person on behalf of justice
  - C. judges rewriting laws when they benefit society
  - D. prosecutors advising juries on how to think about a case
- _____ 4. The key point of the William Penn case is that ____.
- A. juries must obey judges
  - B. prosecutors must be believed
  - C. jurors can’t be punished
  - D. all of these
- _____ 5. The Zenger case shows that juries can ____.
- A. legally undo a bad law
  - B. prevent a trial from occurring
  - C. have a say in setting taxation
  - D. remove oppressive governors
- _____ 6. The Bundy case illustrates that jury nullification can happen when ____.
- A. a defense attorney doesn’t help his client enough
  - B. the prosecutor stays silent
  - C. a trial is unfairly stacked against the defendant
  - D. a judge orders the jury to find the defendant “not guilty”
- _____ 7. Juries protect rights partly because ____.
- A. they can rewrite constitutions
  - B. their verdicts are final
  - C. they’re made up of mostly legal experts
  - D. all of these
- _____ 8. The “thoughtful juror” approach is to ____.
- A. test the case and demand unquestionable proof
  - B. trust government officials to run a trial fairly
  - C. convict accused persons to discourage other potential criminals
  - D. vote with the majority whenever possible
- _____ 9. A pro-jury-service argument for Christians is that the Scriptures value ____.
- A. constitutional government
  - B. forgiveness for wrongdoing
  - C. fair elections for judges
  - D. justice in court judgments
- _____ 10. One argument against Christians serving on juries is that jury service often involves ____.
- A. military service requirements
  - B. oath-taking, which Scripture forbids
  - C. a refusal to hear evidence
  - D. paying taxes directly to the court

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 9B (ANSWER KEY)

- D 1. Bastiat's "Magic Slope" criticism suggests that Blanc's "incline" is dangerous because it ____.
- A. relies on too much upon giving individuals religious and economic liberty
  - B. requires no laws at all, which is dangerous for society
  - C. eliminates the possibility of any nation growing in any way
  - D. assumes planners can push society toward "happiness" via force
- D 2. Bastiat criticizes "socialist democrats" for treating the people as ____.
- A. too ignorant to vote at all
  - B. always too wise to be governed
  - C. always immoral in elections and always wise after
  - D. wise when voting, but stupid after electing a legislator
- B 3. Jury nullification is best described as ____.
- A. harsher sentencing of a guilty person
  - B. acquitting an accused person on behalf of justice
  - C. judges rewriting laws when they benefit society
  - D. prosecutors advising juries on how to think about a case
- C 4. The key point of the William Penn case is that ____.
- A. juries must obey judges
  - B. prosecutors must be believed
  - C. jurors can't be punished
  - D. all of these
- A 5. The Zenger case shows that juries can ____.
- A. legally undo a bad law
  - B. prevent a trial from occurring
  - C. have a say in setting taxation
  - D. remove oppressive governors
- C 6. The Bundy case illustrates that jury nullification can happen when ____.
- A. a defense attorney doesn't help his client enough
  - B. the prosecutor stays silent
  - C. a trial is unfairly stacked against the defendant
  - D. a judge orders the jury to find the defendant "not guilty"
- B 7. Juries protect rights partly because ____.
- A. they can rewrite constitutions
  - B. their verdicts are final
  - C. they're made up of mostly legal experts
  - D. all of these
- A 8. The "thoughtful juror" approach is to ____.
- A. test the case and demand unquestionable proof
  - B. trust government officials to run a trial fairly
  - C. convict accused persons to discourage other potential criminals
  - D. vote with the majority whenever possible
- D 9. A pro-jury-service argument for Christians is that the Scriptures value ____.
- A. constitutional government
  - B. forgiveness for wrongdoing
  - C. fair elections for judges
  - D. justice in court judgments
- B 10. One argument against Christians serving on juries is that jury service often involves ____.
- A. military service requirements
  - B. oath-taking, which Scripture forbids
  - C. a refusal to hear evidence
  - D. paying taxes directly to the court