

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 10B

- _____ 1. When the law exceeds its proper role, it often leads to ____.
- A. greater moral responsibility
 - B. increased voluntary cooperation
 - C. stronger personal initiative
 - D. complaints, unrest, and conflict
- _____ 2. Bastiat rejects the idea that government must direct people because ____.
- A. people are capable of acting responsibly without force
 - B. it just brings to light that individuals lack moral responsibility
 - C. both A & B
 - D. neither A nor B
- _____ 3. Liberty contributes to dignity primarily because it ____.
- A. provides unlimited government assistance
 - B. allows individuals to fulfill their potential
 - C. ensures equal outcomes for everyone who works hard
 - D. reduces the great need for individual effort
- _____ 4. God’s concern for the poor is demonstrated by His ____.
- A. helping those who show strong political influence
 - B. defending the oppressed and vulnerable
 - C. blessing those who accumulate wealth
 - D. providing government aid for the poor to rely upon
- _____ 5. Family hardship contributes to poverty because ____.
- A. inheriting wealth is difficult
 - B. gov’t programs are unavailable
 - C. loss of providers reduces economic stability
 - D. markets can prevent family cooperation
- _____ 6. Freedom tends to increase prosperity because it ____.
- A. provides more equal wealth distribution in society
 - B. encourages productivity and voluntary exchange
 - C. forces businesses to lower prices to serve others more
 - D. eliminates the need for a profit motive
- _____ 7. Compared to past centuries, modern poor people often benefit from ____.
- A. more available goods/services
 - B. technology that lowers costs
 - C. both A & B
 - D. neither A nor B
- _____ 8. Addiction and pursuit of pleasure often result in poverty because they ____.
- A. worsen physical and mental health
 - B. decrease personal motivation
 - C. reduce focus on productive work
 - D. all of these
- _____ 9. Government programs may persist even if they aren’t effective, because ____.
- A. employees face little personal risk if programs fail
 - B. they can eliminate poverty too quickly
 - C. citizens refuse to pay taxes, angered at waste
 - D. all of these
- _____ 10. Ending minimum wage laws could help some workers because it ____.
- A. makes owners richer at the expense of employees
 - B. increases low-skilled workers’ chances to find employment
 - C. both A & B
 - D. neither A nor B

Civics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 10B

- D 1. When the law exceeds its proper role, it often leads to ____.
- A. greater moral responsibility
 - B. increased voluntary cooperation
 - C. stronger personal initiative
 - D. complaints, unrest, and conflict
- A 2. Bastiat rejects the idea that government must direct people because ____.
- A. people are capable of acting responsibly without force
 - B. it just brings to light that individuals lack moral responsibility
 - C. both A & B
 - D. neither A nor B
- B 3. Liberty contributes to dignity primarily because it ____.
- A. provides unlimited government assistance
 - B. allows individuals to fulfill their potential
 - C. ensures equal outcomes for everyone who works hard
 - D. reduces the great need for individual effort
- B 4. God's concern for the poor is demonstrated by His ____.
- A. helping those who show strong political influence
 - B. defending the oppressed and vulnerable
 - C. blessing those who accumulate wealth
 - D. providing government aid for the poor to rely upon
- C 5. Family hardship contributes to poverty because ____.
- A. inheriting wealth is difficult
 - B. gov't programs are unavailable
 - C. loss of providers reduces economic stability
 - D. markets can prevent family cooperation
- B 6. Freedom tends to increase prosperity because it ____.
- A. provides more equal wealth distribution in society
 - B. encourages productivity and voluntary exchange
 - C. forces businesses to lower prices to serve others more
 - D. eliminates the need for a profit motive
- C 7. Compared to past centuries, modern poor people often benefit from ____.
- A. more available goods/services
 - B. technology that lowers costs
 - C. both A & B
 - D. neither A nor B
- D 8. Addiction and pursuit of pleasure often result in poverty because they ____.
- A. worsen physical and mental health
 - B. decrease personal motivation
 - C. reduce focus on productive work
 - D. all of these
- A 9. Government programs may persist even if they aren't effective, because ____.
- A. employees face little personal risk if programs fail
 - B. they can eliminate poverty too quickly
 - C. citizens refuse to pay taxes, angered at waste
 - D. all of these
- B 10. Ending minimum wage laws could help some workers because it ____.
- A. makes owners richer at the expense of employees
 - B. increases low-skilled workers' chances to find employment
 - C. both A & B
 - D. neither A nor B