

Economics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 1A

- _____ 1. In Scripture, a steward was best described as a person who _____.
A. collected taxes B. advised an estate owner C. earned profits D. managed a household
- _____ 2. Noah Webster's 1828 definition of economy emphasized _____.
A. government planning
B. industrial output
C. prudent management of resources
D. wisdom about investments
- _____ 3. "Home Economics" classes historically focused on _____.
A. organizing and managing a household well
B. managing national income and taxes
C. understanding how markets affect society
D. studying the effects of government upon economics
- _____ 4. Even the most intelligent person cannot fully understand economics because _____.
A. it involves complex mathematical models
B. it changes too quickly to study effectively
C. it involves countless individual daily choices
D. it depends almost entirely on government policy
- _____ 5. The Bible does NOT command rulers to _____.
A. discourage violence
B. direct economies
C. execute justice
D. punish theft
- _____ 6. Government's legitimate biblical purpose includes _____.
A. providing free or low-cost goods and services
B. regulating industries that make too much profit
C. assisting the poor by providing goods and services
D. punishing those who commit violence and theft
- _____ 7. Romans 13 describes rulers as _____.
A. ministers who execute wrath on evildoers
B. economic planners who direct society
C. community organizers that improve cities
D. business advisors who assist companies
- _____ 8. 2 Corinthians 9 teaches that giving should be _____.
A. structured through civil authority
B. willing and cheerful
C. encouraged for the sake of fairness
D. carefully measured to ensure equality
- _____ 9. Henry Hazlitt warned that bad economists focus only on _____.
A. moral principles, not good results
B. biblical commands to follow
C. one group or short-term results
D. long-term effects
- _____ 10. A government that followed Biblical standards would _____.
A. control trade industries that are struggling or failing
B. intervene only to execute justice in cases of harm or fraud
C. plan national production of necessary goods and services
D. set wages for important industries like food and medical care

Economics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 1A (ANSWER KEY)

- D 1. A steward in biblical times was primarily a ____.
A. tax collector B. priest C. merchant D. household manager
- C 2. Noah Webster's 1828 definition of economy emphasized ____.
A. government planning
B. industrial output
C. prudent management of resources
D. wisdom about investments
- A 3. "Home Economics" classes historically focused on ____.
A. organizing and managing a household well
B. managing national income and taxes
C. understanding how markets affect society
D. studying the effects of government upon economics
- C 4. Even the most intelligent person cannot fully understand economics because ____.
A. it involves complex mathematical models
B. it changes too quickly to study effectively
C. it involves countless individual daily choices
D. it depends almost entirely on government policy
- B 5. The Bible does NOT command rulers to ____.
A. discourage violence
B. direct economies
C. execute justice
D. punish theft
- D 6. Government's legitimate biblical purpose includes ____.
A. providing free or low-cost goods and services
B. regulating industries that make too much profit
C. assisting the poor by providing goods and services
D. punishing those who commit violence and theft
- A 7. Romans 13 describes rulers as ____.
A. ministers who execute wrath on evildoers
B. economic planners who direct society
C. community organizers that improve cities
D. business advisors who assist companies
- B 8. 2 Corinthians 9 teaches that giving should be ____.
A. structured through civil authority
B. willing and cheerful
C. encouraged for the sake of fairness
D. carefully measured to ensure equality
- C 9. Henry Hazlitt warned that bad economists focus only on ____.
A. moral principles, not good results
B. biblical commands to follow
C. one group or short-term results
D. long-term effects
- B 10. A government that followed Biblical standards would ____.
A. control trade industries that are struggling or failing
B. intervene only to execute justice in cases of harm or fraud
C. plan national production of necessary goods and services
D. set wages for important industries like food and medical care