

American Government & Politics: A Christian Worldview – Test 6 (Final)

- _____ 1. In biblical terms, who are the “spoiled” as described in Jeremiah 22?
 - A. Families that refuse to support standing armies
 - B. Those who oppose the official state religion
 - C. Individuals who fail to pay taxes to the ruling monarch
 - D. Those who have been robbed of their rightful liberty or property
- _____ 2. What is the primary purpose of government according to Biblical standards?
 - A. To build infrastructure and manage medical services
 - B. To oversee the monetary policy of the nation
 - C. To punish evildoers and ensure justice is carried out
 - D. To regulate and control commerce among states
- _____ 3. What is true regarding the historical concept of “Christian governments”?
 - A. They were the only government form supported by the apostles.
 - B. They were universally successful in limiting taxation.
 - C. They have no valid foundation in the Word of God.
 - D. They represented the only non-corrupt form of rule.
- _____ 4. What is the name for a government ruled by a small, closed group of elite individuals?
 - A. Oligarchy B. Monarchy C. Democracy D. Republic
- _____ 5. Which form of government is defined as a system of representatives?
 - A. Oligarchy B. Monarchy C. Democracy D. Republic
- _____ 6. The “Age of Reason” focused primarily on which of the following?
 - A. The divine revelation found in scripture
 - B. The application of human logic and the scientific method.
 - C. The restoration of ancient Roman power structures
 - D. The warnings provided by the early apostles
- _____ 7. Why is the Magna Carta a significant milestone in history?
 - A. It was the first political text to openly reject the idea of a creator.
 - B. It created the very first permanent standing military.
 - C. It reinforced the principle that even rulers must answer to the law.
 - D. It declared the monarch the divine source of all justice.
- _____ 8. What was the origin of rules under the English common law tradition?
 - A. Rules were discovered through long-standing customs and traditions.
 - B. Rules were dictated by the monarch’s changing whims.
 - C. Rules were written by legislatures specifically to benefit the wealthy.
 - D. Rules were created specifically for those outside the Christian faith.
- _____ 9. Why did James Madison express fear regarding a pure democracy?
 - A. Because it is prone to violence and threats to individual security
 - B. Because it is impossible to fund through taxation
 - C. Because it is too resistant to popular change
 - D. Because it lacks sufficient power to act quickly
- _____ 10. What was the primary motivation for including bills of rights in early state constitutions?
 - A. To provide the government with broader tax powers
 - B. To increase the barriers for citizens to participate in voting
 - C. To regulate commerce within the states
 - D. To guard the liberties of the people against the government

- ____ 11. What is a major flaw often associated with “statutory law”?
- A. It is often created in a way that is senseless and difficult to nullify.
 - B. It is too brief to be useful for the average person.
 - C. It relies too heavily on individual conscience to follow.
 - D. It is too easy to understand by the common man.
- ____ 12. The express purpose of the convention held in Philadelphia was to ____.
- A. elect a President
 - B. declare war on Britain
 - C. revise the AOC
 - D. None of these
- ____ 13. What did Patrick Henry warn would happen under the proposed Constitution?
- A. It would lead to the rise of local judges who were too powerful.
 - B. It would create an empire and eventually erode liberty.
 - C. It would lead to a rapid increase in state-level poverty.
 - D. All of these
- ____ 14. What is the most appropriate action for a state when facing an unconstitutional federal law?
- A. Declare the law illegitimate and refuse to enforce it.
 - B. Ask the Supreme Court for permission to ignore it.
 - C. Request that the President issue a personal pardon for the law.
 - D. Follow the law out of respect for the federal government.
- ____ 15. Why is the federal government’s practice of “interpreting” the Constitution risky?
- A. It might result in the states gaining too much authority.
 - B. Officials will interpret it to grab the powers they want.
 - C. It relies on a different language than the Constitution was written in.
 - D. It places legal duty in the hands of the young and inexperienced.
- ____ 16. What is the historical definition of a “writ of assistance”?
- A. A permit to hold a public demonstration
 - B. A license to purchase firearms
 - C. An order for soldiers to inhabit homes
 - D. A general, sweeping search warrant
- ____ 17. How does the Second Amendment serve to protect the people?
- A. By training police to handle domestic crime
 - B. By allowing the government to centralize militias
 - C. By funding local military training camps
 - D. By maintaining a citizenry capable of defending itself against tyranny
- ____ 18. Why did early Americans view standing armies with such hostility?
- A. They are usually poorly armed compared to the general population.
 - B. They can be utilized as tools of oppression against the citizenry.
 - C. They are only ever used to fight wars with foreign nations.
 - D. None of these
- ____ 19. To be “in pursuance thereof,” a law must be ____.
- A. approved by the President
 - B. written by the Supreme Court
 - C. consistent with the constraints in the Constitution
 - D. passed unanimously by both houses of Congress
- ____ 20. How is the language of the Bill of Rights framed?
- A. It is written as a list of grants for federal authority.
 - B. It provides new rights for citizens under the government.
 - C. It is written in negative language to limit federal power.
 - D. It encourages state governments to expand their power.

- ____ 21. What is a benefit of “pleading the Fifth”?
- A. It almost guarantees that an accused person will be found innocent.
 - B. It prevents a prosecutor from setting a trap for the witness.
 - C. It voids any potential court fees an accused person might have to pay.
 - D. All of these
- ____ 22. What does the Ninth Amendment prohibit regarding constitutional rights?
- A. Changing the original list of rights
 - B. Treating the list of rights as the people’s only rights
 - C. Adding new rights through the amendment process
 - D. Allowing the states to ignore the list
- ____ 23. What power is reserved by the Tenth Amendment?
- A. Federal power applies only when states agree.
 - B. States must follow federal government mandates.
 - C. All powers not given to the federal government stay with states or the people.
 - D. The government may interpret powers as needed.
- ____ 24. What did the Federalists guarantee regarding constitutional powers?
- A. Government would be permitted to expand power only in emergencies.
 - B. The federal government would eventually become superior to states.
 - C. Only powers explicitly granted would be exercised.
 - D. The states would lose their taxing authority.
- ____ 25. Why did the true Federalist founders dislike the Chisholm v. Georgia ruling?
- A. It took power from states, contrary to previous Nationalist assurances.
 - B. It restricted the President’s ability to act without permission from Congress.
 - C. It was a victory for the state supreme courts.
 - D. None of these
- ____ 26. How do jurors exert nullification?
- A. By informing the judge how to interpret the law
 - B. By debating new laws during jury meetings
 - C. By acquitting a defendant even if he technically broke a law
 - D. By threatening the arresting officers
- ____ 27. A “presidential ticket” is defined as ____.
- A. A ballot meant strictly for federal offices
 - B. An Electoral College appointment
 - C. A list of laws proposed by a candidate
 - D. A pair running together for President and Vice President
- ____ 28. Which example illustrates an “internal improvement”?
- A. A bridge built in a state, paid for by other states
 - B. A road funded by federal taxation
 - C. Neither A nor B
 - D. Both A & B
- ____ 29. What do appellate courts specifically judge?
- A. Cases that are appealed due to initial trial errors
 - B. Criminal issues that have never been tried
 - C. Decisions made by the governor
 - D. Petty arguments between neighbors
- ____ 30. What is determined by a grand jury?
- A. If a defendant is guilty or innocent
 - B. If enough evidence exists to bring formal charges
 - C. If a judge should be removed
 - D. If a state law is constitutional

- _____ 31. How do historians who support powerful governments view a “great” president?
- A. One who dominates and overrides constitutional limits
 - B. One who follows the written law strictly
 - C. One who lets the states handle governance
 - D. One who stays out of economic matters
- _____ 32. What was a hallmark of Hoover’s response to the 1929 crisis?
- A. A “hands-off” approach to economics
 - B. Increased taxes and business regulations
 - C. Cutting government spending by approximately 50 percent
 - D. Abolishing the tariff system
- _____ 33. What was the rationale behind the National Industrial Recovery Act?
- A. To create tax cuts for everyone
 - B. To encourage private business owners
 - C. To end the depression through intervention
 - D. To follow the Constitution more faithfully
- _____ 34. Schechter Poultry v. U.S. successfully challenged the ____.
- A. income tax
 - B. 1920 depression laws
 - C. National Recovery Administration
 - D. 1932 presidential election results
- _____ 35. What is an exaction?
- A. A fee for using a road
 - B. A tithe for the church
 - C. A protective barrier for goods
 - D. An unjust tax or theft of property
- _____ 36. What is the danger of the FDA blocking medicine?
- A. It limits a dying patient’s right to seek his own treatment.
 - B. It makes drugs too expensive.
 - C. It limits the influence of pharmaceutical companies.
 - D. It makes medicine too easy for criminals to acquire.
- _____ 37. What have federal spending on schools in the U.S. demonstrated?
- A. Lower costs and higher results
 - B. A slight increase in student performance
 - C. Better literacy levels compared to 1800
 - D. Higher costs and worse results
- _____ 38. What is the best description of a “powerful president”?
- A. A necessary figure for a stable republic
 - B. A president who violates the Constitution
 - C. A leader who successfully follows the law
 - D. A president who looks out for the good of the people
- _____ 39. What did Grover Cleveland believe about government-provided charity?
- A. It should be the main purpose of the federal government.
 - B. It is the best way to distribute wealth.
 - C. It provides security during droughts.
 - D. It weakens the national character.
- _____ 40. What is a “lobbyist”?
- A. A member of Congress who writes laws benefiting certain companies
 - B. Someone paid to influence the writing of legislation
 - C. Both A & B
 - D. Neither A nor B

American Government & Politics: A Christian Worldview – Test 6 (Final)

- D 1. In biblical terms, who are the “spoiled” as described in Jeremiah 22?
- A. Families that refuse to support standing armies
 - B. Those who oppose the official state religion
 - C. Individuals who fail to pay taxes to the ruling monarch
 - D. Those who have been robbed of their rightful liberty or property
- C 2. What is the primary purpose of government according to Biblical standards?
- A. To build infrastructure and manage medical services
 - B. To oversee the monetary policy of the nation
 - C. To punish evildoers and ensure justice is carried out
 - D. To regulate and control commerce among states
- C 3. What is true regarding the historical concept of “Christian governments”?
- A. They were the only government form supported by the apostles.
 - B. They were universally successful in limiting taxation.
 - C. They have no valid foundation in the Word of God.
 - D. They represented the only non-corrupt form of rule.
- A 4. What is the name for a government ruled by a small, closed group of elite individuals?
- A. Oligarchy B. Monarchy C. Democracy D. Republic
- D 5. Which form of government is defined as a system of representatives?
- A. Oligarchy B. Monarchy C. Democracy D. Republic
- B 6. The “Age of Reason” focused primarily on which of the following?
- A. The divine revelation found in scripture
 - B. The application of human logic and the scientific method.
 - C. The restoration of ancient Roman power structures
 - D. The warnings provided by the early apostles
- C 7. Why is the Magna Carta a significant milestone in history?
- A. It was the first political text to openly reject the idea of a creator.
 - B. It created the very first permanent standing military.
 - C. It reinforced the principle that even rulers must answer to the law.
 - D. It declared the monarch the divine source of all justice.
- A 8. What was the origin of rules under the English common law tradition?
- A. Rules were discovered through long-standing customs and traditions.
 - B. Rules were dictated by the monarch’s changing whims.
 - C. Rules were written by legislatures specifically to benefit the wealthy.
 - D. Rules were created specifically for those outside the Christian faith.
- A 9. Why did James Madison express fear regarding a pure democracy?
- A. Because it is prone to violence and threats to individual security
 - B. Because it is impossible to fund through taxation
 - C. Because it is too resistant to popular change
 - D. Because it lacks sufficient power to act quickly
- D 10. What was the primary motivation for including bills of rights in early state constitutions?
- A. To provide the government with broader tax powers
 - B. To increase the barriers for citizens to participate in voting
 - C. To regulate commerce within the states
 - D. To guard the liberties of the people against the government

- A 11. What is a major flaw often associated with “statutory law”?
- A. It is often created in a way that is senseless and difficult to nullify.
 - B. It is too brief to be useful for the average person.
 - C. It relies too heavily on individual conscience to follow.
 - D. It is too easy to understand by the common man.
- C 12. The express purpose of the convention held in Philadelphia was to ____.
- A. elect a President
 - B. declare war on Britain
 - C. revise the AOC
 - D. None of these
- B 13. What did Patrick Henry warn would happen under the proposed Constitution?
- A. It would lead to the rise of local judges who were too powerful.
 - B. It would create an empire and eventually erode liberty.
 - C. It would lead to a rapid increase in state-level poverty.
 - D. All of these
- A 14. What is the most appropriate action for a state when facing an unconstitutional federal law?
- A. Declare the law illegitimate and refuse to enforce it.
 - B. Ask the Supreme Court for permission to ignore it.
 - C. Request that the President issue a personal pardon for the law.
 - D. Follow the law out of respect for the federal government.
- B 15. Why is the federal government’s practice of “interpreting” the Constitution risky?
- A. It might result in the states gaining too much authority.
 - B. Officials will interpret it to grab the powers they want.
 - C. It relies on a different language than the Constitution was written in.
 - D. It places legal duty in the hands of the young and inexperienced.
- D 16. What is the historical definition of a “writ of assistance”?
- A. A permit to hold a public demonstration
 - B. A license to purchase firearms
 - C. An order for soldiers to inhabit homes
 - D. A general, sweeping search warrant
- D 17. How does the Second Amendment serve to protect the people?
- A. By training police to handle domestic crime
 - B. By allowing the government to centralize militias
 - C. By funding local military training camps
 - D. By maintaining a citizenry capable of defending itself against tyranny
- B 18. Why did early Americans view standing armies with such hostility?
- A. They are usually poorly armed compared to the general population.
 - B. They can be utilized as tools of oppression against the citizenry.
 - C. They are only ever used to fight wars with foreign nations.
 - D. None of these
- C 19. To be “in pursuance thereof,” a law must be ____.
- A. approved by the President
 - B. written by the Supreme Court
 - C. consistent with the constraints in the Constitution
 - D. passed unanimously by both houses of Congress
- C 20. How is the language of the Bill of Rights framed?
- A. It is written as a list of grants for federal authority.
 - B. It provides new rights for citizens under the government.
 - C. It is written in negative language to limit federal power.
 - D. It encourages state governments to expand their power.

- B 21. What is a benefit of “pleading the Fifth”?
- A. It almost guarantees that an accused person will be found innocent.
 - B. It prevents a prosecutor from setting a trap for the witness.
 - C. It voids any potential court fees an accused person might have to pay.
 - D. All of these
- B 22. What does the Ninth Amendment prohibit regarding constitutional rights?
- A. Changing the original list of rights
 - B. Treating the list of rights as the people’s only rights
 - C. Adding new rights through the amendment process
 - D. Allowing the states to ignore the list
- C 23. What power is reserved by the Tenth Amendment?
- A. Federal power applies only when states agree.
 - B. States must follow federal government mandates.
 - C. All powers not given to the federal government stay with states or the people.
 - D. The government may interpret powers as needed.
- C 24. What did the Federalists guarantee regarding constitutional powers?
- A. Government would be permitted to expand power only in emergencies.
 - B. The federal government would eventually become superior to states.
 - C. Only powers explicitly granted would be exercised.
 - D. The states would lose their taxing authority.
- A 25. Why did the true Federalist founders dislike the Chisholm v. Georgia ruling?
- A. It took power from states, contrary to previous Nationalist assurances.
 - B. It restricted the President’s ability to act without permission from Congress.
 - C. It was a victory for the state supreme courts.
 - D. None of these
- C 26. How do jurors exert nullification?
- A. By informing the judge how to interpret the law
 - B. By debating new laws during jury meetings
 - C. By acquitting a defendant even if he technically broke a law
 - D. By threatening the arresting officers
- D 27. A “presidential ticket” is defined as ____.
- A. A ballot meant strictly for federal offices
 - B. An Electoral College appointment
 - C. A list of laws proposed by a candidate
 - D. A pair running together for President and Vice President
- D 28. Which example illustrates an “internal improvement”?
- A. A bridge built in a state, paid for by other states
 - B. A road funded by federal taxation
 - C. Neither A nor B
 - D. Both A & B
- A 29. What do appellate courts specifically judge?
- A. Cases that are appealed due to initial trial errors
 - B. Criminal issues that have never been tried
 - C. Decisions made by the governor
 - D. Petty arguments between neighbors
- B 30. What is determined by a grand jury?
- A. If a defendant is guilty or innocent
 - B. If enough evidence exists to bring formal charges
 - C. If a judge should be removed
 - D. If a state law is constitutional

- A 31. How do historians who support powerful governments view a “great” president?
- A. One who dominates and overrides constitutional limits
 - B. One who follows the written law strictly
 - C. One who lets the states handle governance
 - D. One who stays out of economic matters
- B 32. What was a hallmark of Hoover’s response to the 1929 crisis?
- A. A “hands-off” approach to economics
 - B. Increased taxes and business regulations
 - C. Cutting government spending by approximately 50 percent
 - D. Abolishing the tariff system
- C 33. What was the rationale behind the National Industrial Recovery Act?
- A. To create tax cuts for everyone
 - B. To encourage private business owners
 - C. To end the depression through intervention
 - D. To follow the Constitution more faithfully
- C 34. Schechter Poultry v. U.S. successfully challenged the ____.
- A. income tax
 - B. 1920 depression laws
 - C. National Recovery Administration
 - D. 1932 presidential election results
- D 35. What is an exaction?
- A. A fee for using a road
 - B. A tithe for the church
 - C. A protective barrier for goods
 - D. An unjust tax or theft of property
- A 36. What is the danger of the FDA blocking medicine?
- A. It limits a dying patient’s right to seek his own treatment.
 - B. It makes drugs too expensive.
 - C. It limits the influence of pharmaceutical companies.
 - D. It makes medicine too easy for criminals to acquire.
- D 37. What have federal spending on schools in the U.S. demonstrated?
- A. Lower costs and higher results
 - B. A slight increase in student performance
 - C. Better literacy levels compared to 1800
 - D. Higher costs and worse results
- B 38. What is the best description of a “powerful president”?
- A. A necessary figure for a stable republic
 - B. A president who violates the Constitution
 - C. A leader who successfully follows the law
 - D. A president who looks out for the good of the people
- D 39. What did Grover Cleveland believe about government-provided charity?
- A. It should be the main purpose of the federal government.
 - B. It is the best way to distribute wealth.
 - C. It provides security during droughts.
 - D. It weakens the national character.
- B 40. What is a “lobbyist”?
- A. A member of Congress who writes laws benefiting certain companies
 - B. Someone paid to influence the writing of legislation
 - C. Both A & B
 - D. Neither A nor B