

American Government & Politics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 3

- _____ 1. A sound approach to studying government begins by judging ideas according to ____.
- A. public opinion trends
 - B. economic outcomes
 - C. the Bible's teaching
 - D. historical traditions
- _____ 2. Which situation best fits the proper function of government?
- A. penalizing a person for fraud
 - B. providing free housing
 - C. setting food regulations
 - D. supporting Christian charities
- _____ 3. In Romans 13, "evil" refers mainly to actions that ____ others.
- A. annoy
 - B. embarrass
 - C. criticize
 - D. harm
- _____ 4. Punishing theft and protecting victims demonstrates the government's role in providing ____.
- A. benefits
 - B. wealth
 - C. justice
 - D. control
- _____ 5. Roger Williams insisted that civil leaders should never ____ religious belief.
- A. explain
 - B. ignore
 - C. defend
 - D. force
- _____ 6. Ancient Greek thinkers challenged the idea that rulers should have ____ power.
- A. shared
 - B. absolute
 - C. limited
 - D. temporary
- _____ 7. Ancient Greek thinkers are known for emphasizing ____ in political ideas.
- A. tradition
 - B. religion
 - C. reason
 - D. emotion
- _____ 8. Plato believed ideal rulers would be wise and ____ to abuse power.
- A. unwilling
 - B. trained
 - C. prepared
 - D. eager
- _____ 9. Aristotle warned that democracy can become dangerous when the majority replaces ____.
- A. law B. wisdom C. leaders D. tradition
- _____ 10. A republic is best described as a system led by ____ who represent the people.
- A. kings B. judges C. armies D. representatives

American Government & Politics: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 3 – ANSWER KEY

- C 1. A sound approach to studying government begins by judging ideas according to ____.
- A. public opinion trends
 - B. economic outcomes
 - C. the Bible's teaching
 - D. historical traditions
- A 2. Which situation best fits the proper function of government?
- A. penalizing a person for fraud
 - B. providing free housing
 - C. setting food regulations
 - D. supporting Christian charities
- D 3. In Romans 13, "evil" refers mainly to actions that ____ others.
- A. annoy
 - B. embarrass
 - C. criticize
 - D. harm
- C 4. Punishing theft and protecting victims demonstrates the government's role in providing ____.
- A. benefits
 - B. wealth
 - C. justice
 - D. control
- D 5. Roger Williams insisted that civil leaders should never ____ religious belief.
- A. explain
 - B. ignore
 - C. defend
 - D. force
- B 6. Ancient Greek thinkers challenged the idea that rulers should have ____ power.
- A. shared
 - B. absolute
 - C. limited
 - D. temporary
- C 7. Ancient Greek thinkers are known for emphasizing ____ in political ideas.
- A. tradition
 - B. religion
 - C. reason
 - D. emotion
- A 8. Plato believed ideal rulers would be wise and ____ to abuse power.
- A. unwilling
 - B. trained
 - C. prepared
 - D. eager
- A 9. Aristotle warned that democracy can become dangerous when the majority replaces ____.
- A. law B. wisdom C. leaders D. tradition
- D 10. A republic is best described as a system led by ____ who represent the people.
- A. kings B. judges C. armies D. representatives