

American Government: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 4

- _____ 1. The Renaissance contributed to American government by emphasizing _____.
A. absolute monarchies B. individual rights C. centralized authority D. all of these
- _____ 2. A benefit of Renaissance individualism is that it encourages _____.
A. government control
B. limited authority over individuals
C. stricter class systems
D. religious uniformity
- _____ 3. A danger of Renaissance thinking is that it can lead to _____.
A. humanism centered on man
B. stronger biblical authority
C. greater church influence
D. reduced individual freedoms
- _____ 4. A major long-term result of the Reformation was increased _____.
A. state control of religion
B. monarchical power
C. church authority
D. religious freedom
- _____ 5. Machiavelli's The Prince warned that rulers seeking power may _____.
A. follow strict morality
B. avoid deception
C. do anything necessary to keep power
D. all of these
- _____ 6. A major problem with Enlightenment thinking is that it often _____.
A. denies human reason
B. elevates God's Word
C. rejects scientific discovery
D. reduces the role of God
- _____ 7. A law that allows individuals to freely produce and trade goods reflects _____.
A. laissez-faire principles
B. central planning
C. feudalism
D. state control
- _____ 8. Montesquieu taught that separating powers helps prevent _____.
A. economic growth
B. public debate
C. tyrannical government
D. law enforcement
- _____ 9. If one branch of government writes, enforces, and judges laws, it will likely lead to _____.
A. needed efficiency
B. oppression
C. increased liberty
D. balanced power
- _____ 10. The Magna Carta established the idea that _____.
A. rulers have unlimited power
B. taxes require consent
C. kings control all law
D. none of these

American Government: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 4 – ANSWER KEY

- B 1. The Renaissance contributed to American government by emphasizing ____.
A. absolute monarchies B. individual rights C. centralized authority D. all of these
- B 2. A benefit of Renaissance individualism is that it encourages ____.
A. government control
B. limited authority over individuals
C. stricter class systems
D. religious uniformity
- A 3. A danger of Renaissance thinking is that it can lead to ____.
A. humanism centered on man
B. stronger biblical authority
C. greater church influence
D. reduced individual freedoms
- D 4. A major long-term result of the Reformation was increased ____.
A. state control of religion
B. monarchical power
C. church authority
D. religious freedom
- C 5. Machiavelli's The Prince warned that rulers seeking power may ____.
A. follow strict morality
B. avoid deception
C. do anything necessary to keep power
D. all of these
- D 6. A major problem with Enlightenment thinking is that it often ____.
A. denies human reason
B. elevates God's Word
C. rejects scientific discovery
D. reduces the role of God
- A 7. A law that allows individuals to freely produce and trade goods reflects ____.
A. laissez-faire principles
B. central planning
C. feudalism
D. state control
- C 8. Montesquieu taught that separating powers helps prevent ____.
A. economic growth
B. public debate
C. tyrannical government
D. law enforcement
- B 9. If one branch of government writes, enforces, and judges laws, it will likely lead to ____
A. needed efficiency
B. oppression
C. increased liberty
D. balanced power
- B 10. The Magna Carta established the idea that ____.
A. rulers have unlimited power
B. taxes require consent
C. kings control all law
D. none of these