

American Government: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 10

- _____ 1. The Eighth Amendment prohibits ____.
- A. excessive bail, excessive fines, and cruel punishments
 - B. jury trials
 - C. appeals in criminal cases
 - D. all of these
- _____ 2. The phrase “cruel and unusual punishment” raises concern because ____.
- A. it can be interpreted differently by those in power
 - B. it applies only to wartime situations
 - C. both A & B
 - D. neither A nor B
- _____ 3. The Ninth Amendment says that ____.
- A. only listed rights exist
 - B. people retain rights not specifically listed
 - C. states control all rights
 - D. Congress defines all rights
- _____ 4. The “babysitter” example in the Ninth Amendment discussion shows that ____.
- A. children misunderstand authority
 - B. not saying something isn’t allowed doesn’t make it automatically allowed
 - C. rules must be detailed for governments to apply them fairly
 - D. authority should be flexible when unusual situations arise
- _____ 5. The Tenth Amendment reinforces the idea that ____.
- A. Congress has unlimited authority
 - B. states must obey all federal laws
 - C. courts define all constitutional powers
 - D. federal powers are limited to those specifically granted
- _____ 6. Thomas Jefferson warned that ignoring constitutional limits would lead to ____.
- A. stronger individual states
 - B. reduced taxes
 - C. fewer laws
 - D. unlimited government power
- _____ 7. Tariffs are best described as ____.
- A. payments to citizens
 - B. taxes on imported goods
 - C. state regulations
 - D. court fines
- _____ 8. Tariffs often lead to ____.
- A. favoritism toward certain industries
 - B. lower costs of goods for consumers
 - C. equal pricing of goods and services
 - D. reduced government influence
- _____ 9. The creation of a national bank was controversial because ____.
- A. it reduced debt
 - B. it lowered taxes
 - C. states supported it fully
 - D. no clear constitutional power authorized it
- _____ 10. Georgia’s response to the Chisholm v. Georgia decision showed that ____.
- A. states very quickly began submitting to federal courts
 - B. courts lacked authority
 - C. states strongly resisted perceived federal overreach
 - D. Congress gained power by enforcing the ruling

American Government: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 10 – ANSWER KEY

- A 1. The Eighth Amendment prohibits ____.
- A. excessive bail, excessive fines, and cruel punishments
 - B. jury trials
 - C. appeals in criminal cases
 - D. all of these
- A 2. The phrase “cruel and unusual punishment” raises concern because ____.
- A. it can be interpreted differently by those in power
 - B. it applies only to wartime situations
 - C. both A & B
 - D. neither A nor B
- B 3. The Ninth Amendment says that ____.
- A. only listed rights exist
 - B. people retain rights not specifically listed
 - C. states control all rights
 - D. Congress defines all rights
- B 4. The “babysitter” example in the Ninth Amendment discussion shows that ____.
- A. children misunderstand authority
 - B. not saying something isn’t allowed doesn’t make it automatically allowed
 - C. rules must be detailed for governments to apply them fairly
 - D. authority should be flexible when unusual situations arise
- D 5. The Tenth Amendment reinforces the idea that ____.
- A. Congress has unlimited authority
 - B. states must obey all federal laws
 - C. courts define all constitutional powers
 - D. federal powers are limited to those specifically granted
- D 6. Thomas Jefferson warned that ignoring constitutional limits would lead to ____.
- A. stronger individual states B. reduced taxes C. fewer laws D. unlimited government power
- B 7. Tariffs are best described as ____.
- A. payments to citizens
 - B. taxes on imported goods
 - C. state regulations
 - D. court fines
- A 8. Tariffs often lead to ____.
- A. favoritism toward certain industries
 - B. lower costs of goods for consumers
 - C. equal pricing of goods and services
 - D. reduced government influence
- D 9. The creation of a national bank was controversial because ____.
- A. it reduced debt
 - B. it lowered taxes
 - C. states supported it fully
 - D. no clear constitutional power authorized it
- D 10. Georgia’s response to the Chisholm v. Georgia decision showed that ____.
- A. states very quickly began submitting to federal courts
 - B. courts lacked authority
 - C. states strongly resisted perceived federal overreach
 - D. Congress gained power by enforcing the ruling