

American Government: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 12

- _____ 1. Because of the tie between Jefferson and Burr, the final decision was made by the _____.
A. Senate B. Supreme Court C. House of Representatives D. state governors
- _____ 2. By the election of 1800, many Americans were frustrated with Federalists because they were _____.
A. too focused on foreign affairs
B. exceeding constitutional limits
C. favoring agriculture only
D. ignoring elections
- _____ 3. One major result of the election of 1800 was the creation of _____.
A. a new political party
B. the Electoral College
C. a national bank
D. the Twelfth Amendment
- _____ 4. One action Jefferson took that expanded federal power was the _____.
A. reduction of bureaucracy
B. repeal of all taxes
C. Louisiana Purchase
D. elimination of courts
- _____ 5. The Twelfth Amendment changed elections by requiring electors to _____.
A. vote in person
B. represent states equally
C. vote for a President/Vice President team
D. follow popular vote strictly
- _____ 6. Under the Twelfth Amendment, if no candidate wins a majority, the House chooses from _____.
A. all candidates
B. the top three candidates
C. the bottom two candidates
D. the vice-presidential nominees
- _____ 7. The Electoral College system means that the President is chosen based on _____.
A. total national votes
B. congressional approval
C. judicial decisions
D. electoral votes from states
- _____ 8. Protective tariffs were criticized because they _____.
A. benefited some groups at others' expense
B. reduced trade entirely
C. eliminated competition
D. lowered government taxation
- _____ 9. In Marbury v. Madison, the Supreme Court established the principle of _____.
A. state sovereignty
B. executive privilege
C. judicial review
D. legislative supremacy
- _____ 10. Judicial review means that the Supreme Court can _____.
A. create laws
B. enforce elections
C. declare laws unconstitutional
D. none of these

American Government: A Christian Worldview – Quiz 12 – ANSWER KEY

- C 1. Because of the tie between Jefferson and Burr, the final decision was made by the ____.
A. Senate B. Supreme Court C. House of Representatives D. state governors
- B 2. By the election of 1800, many Americans were frustrated with Federalists because they were ____.
A. too focused on foreign affairs
B. exceeding constitutional limits
C. favoring agriculture only
D. ignoring elections
- D 3. One major result of the election of 1800 was the creation of ____.
A. a new political party
B. the Electoral College
C. a national bank
D. the Twelfth Amendment
- A 4. One action Jefferson took that expanded federal power was the ____.
A. reduction of bureaucracy
B. repeal of all taxes
C. Louisiana Purchase
D. elimination of courts
- C 5. The Twelfth Amendment changed elections by requiring electors to ____.
A. vote in person
B. represent states equally
C. vote for a President/Vice President team
D. follow popular vote strictly
- B 6. Under the Twelfth Amendment, if no candidate wins a majority, the House chooses from ____.
A. all candidates
B. the top three candidates
C. the bottom two candidates
D. the vice-presidential nominees
- D 7. The Electoral College system means that the President is chosen based on ____.
A. total national votes
B. congressional approval
C. judicial decisions
D. electoral votes from states
- A 8. Protective tariffs were criticized because they ____.
A. benefited some groups at others' expense
B. reduced trade entirely
C. eliminated competition
D. lowered government taxation
- C 9. In Marbury v. Madison, the Supreme Court established the principle of ____.
A. state sovereignty
B. executive privilege
C. judicial review
D. legislative supremacy
- C 10. Judicial review means that the Supreme Court can ____.
A. create laws
B. enforce elections
C. declare laws unconstitutional
D. none of these