

American Government & Politics: A Christian Worldview – Test 8: Cumulative Final

- _____ 1. What is the primary standard against which a Christian should measure any law or government action?
A. The opinion of established political leaders C. Historical precedents set by earlier decisions
B. The degree to which the law promotes unity D. The authoritative standard of God's Word
- _____ 2. When studying the nature of government, what is a crucial realization one must reach?
A. Government can be nearly perfected through the right leadership.
B. Human institutions are often perfectible if they are secular.
C. The goal of government is to remove earthly struggle.
D. Institutions are inherently flawed because they are composed of imperfect individuals.
- _____ 3. According to the Bible, what is one main objective for the existence of government?
A. The punishment of theft or violence
B. The execution of justice
C. Both A & B
D. Neither A nor B
- _____ 4. In the context of biblical governance, what does the term "spoil" mean?
A. The distribution of resources to the poor
B. The collection of tax revenues that pay for government
C. The act of destruction, oppression, or robbery
D. The fair enforcement of civil contracts
- _____ 5. The Bible categorizes an "evildoer" as someone who _____.
A. commits acts like murder, assault, or theft C. hates God or his fellow man
B. speaks angrily against the ruling authority D. All of these
- _____ 6. When is a Christian obligated to defy the government?
A. When tax rates become unfairly burdensome or a total nuisance
B. When the state commands the individual to violate a divine command
C. Whenever the government functions as something other than a republic
D. Any of these
- _____ 7. Which of the following defines a "republic"?
A. A system where the leader is a monarch supported by a legislature
B. A system where the voting public decides laws directly
C. A system where the judicial branch holds absolute authority
D. A system where the people are governed by chosen representatives
- _____ 8. What is the primary function of separating the powers of government?
A. To minimize the ability of any single ruler to abuse authority
B. To accelerate the speed of the legislative process
C. To elevate the judicial branch to the status of supreme overseer
D. To streamline the administration of national resources
- _____ 9. What is meant by the assertion in Romans 13:3–4 that rulers should be a "terror to evil"?
A. They should suppress beliefs that violate government standards and principles.
B. They should serve as a deterrent to those who engage in criminal acts.
C. They should create fear in the hearts of all citizens through intimidation.
D. They should intimidate those who challenge their personal authority.
- _____ 10. What is the legal principle of "habeas corpus"?
A. A mandate that all individuals, regardless of status, pay a uniform tax
B. A framework for the regulation of interstate trade
C. A protocol for the professional appointment of judges
D. A requirement that a prisoner be charged with an offense or set free

- _____ 11. “Common law” is ____; “statutory law” is ____.
- A. enacted by legislatures; judicial
 - B. inherently unjust; usually more just
 - C. applied via precedent; written by legislatures
 - D. None of these
- _____ 12. Why did the Founding generation express skepticism regarding pure democracy?
- A. It was too costly for a growing nation to fund via taxation only.
 - B. It necessitated a representative body that was too large to be effective.
 - C. It enabled the majority to infringe upon the rights of the minority.
 - D. It transferred too much authority to the monarch.
- _____ 13. According to critics, what was a significant weakness of the Articles of Confederation?
- A. The President was able to exercise too much executive power.
 - B. The national government possessed too much control over interstate trade.
 - C. The states were forbidden from negotiating treaties with other nations.
 - D. The central government lacked the authority to tax or maintain a permanent army.
- _____ 14. The specific mandate for the delegates at the Constitutional Convention was to ____.
- A. draft a brand new constitution
 - B. revise the Articles of Confederation
 - C. replace the Articles with something different
 - D. None of these
- _____ 15. What motivated the Nationalists to support the new Constitution?
- A. Establishing a powerful central government
 - B. Protecting the sovereignty of the states
 - C. Passing a Bill of Rights
 - D. None of these
- _____ 16. Why are the terms “Federalist” and “Antifederalist” misleading?
- A. The Antifederalists were the actual defenders of federalism.
 - B. Both parties desired similar government structures.
 - C. Both A & B
 - D. Neither A nor B
- _____ 17. How should the “Necessary and Proper” clause be applied?
- A. It authorizes Congress to pass any law it finds useful.
 - B. It allows the executive to override legislative decisions.
 - C. It confines Congress to laws needed to execute specifically listed powers.
 - D. It is a secondary guideline that is not legally binding.
- _____ 18. Which of the following demonstrates a constitutional application of the “General Welfare” clause?
- A. Congress provides cash assistance to struggling steel manufacturers across the entire nation.
 - B. Congress passes a law regulating the types of seeds farmers are allowed to plant in order to ensure high-quality agricultural outputs.
 - C. Congress mandates that all citizens must purchase a specific type of life insurance plan so that families in every state are financially taken care of.
 - D. Congress uses taxes to pay for a defensive presence on the borders of the nation.
- _____ 19. Which of these demonstrates the constitutional application of the “Necessary and Proper” clause?
- A. Congress establishes a national bank, arguing that a unified financial system makes it easier for the government to manage its affairs.
 - B. Congress passes a law regulating the nutritional content of all school lunches, arguing that healthy children are “necessary” for the general welfare of the nation.
 - C. Congress creates a federal post office and, to ensure mail delivery is secure, passes a law making it a crime to steal the mail.
 - D. Congress mandates that all citizens must purchase specific healthcare insurance, saying that because Congress has the power to tax, it has the power to compel citizens to engage in commerce that makes tax collection more efficient.
- _____ 20. What is the primary function of the Bill of Rights?
- A. To place constraints on the U.S. government
 - B. To clarify the U.S. government’s tax-collecting process
 - C. To outline the specific duties of the executive and legislative branches
 - D. All of these

- _____ 21. How should we interpret the fact that the Bill of Rights was added after the initial Constitution?
- A. It was an unnecessary addition, because nearly all parties agreed on the original text.
 - B. It was a necessary compromise to reassure those skeptical of central power.
 - C. It was part of the original design from the very first meeting.
 - D. It was designed to enhance the President's executive capacity.
- _____ 22. What is the underlying purpose of the Electoral College?
- A. It is designed to make the election process more economical.
 - B. It prevents heavily populated areas from dominating less populated states.
 - C. It ensures that the candidate who wins the popular vote always takes office.
 - D. It allows the federal government to oversee state-run elections.
- _____ 23. What is the definition of "impeach"?
- A. To remove a justice from the Supreme Court bench
 - B. To subject a government official to a formal trial
 - C. To veto a bill that has been passed by the legislature
 - D. To execute a criminal sentence against a guilty person
- _____ 24. How can the U.S. Congress limit the Supreme Court's authority?
- A. By enacting laws that restrict the Court from ruling on specific subjects
 - B. By appointing new justices at will, as they see fit to do
 - C. By vetoing the Court's specific decisions on cases that they try in court
 - D. By impeaching the justices without a formal trial
- _____ 25. What does the phrase "in pursuance thereof" mean in Article VI?
- A. When Congress believes a law is necessary
 - B. When a majority in Congress votes
 - C. While adhering to the Constitution's limits
 - D. In cases that relate to foreign treaties.
- _____ 26. What was Benjamin Franklin's outlook regarding the publication of lies?
- A. He believed that truth would eventually triumph if allowed a fair opportunity.
 - B. He advocated for some government regulation of speech if that speech went too far.
 - C. He believed lies were occasionally necessary for successful governance.
 - D. He believed publishers should be jailed for printing clear falsehoods.
- _____ 27. Why do advocates for massive government expansion oppose the Second Amendment?
- A. Because it prevents the government from being the sole possessor of force
 - B. Because it hinders the government from collecting taxes
 - C. Because the text of that amendment is too brief to be easily interpreted
 - D. Because it forces the state to pay for the purchase of firearms
- _____ 28. Who constitutes the "militia" referenced in the Second Amendment?
- A. The National Guard of every state
 - B. The police and U.S. military
 - C. The entire body of the people
 - D. None of these
- _____ 29. What occurs if no U.S. presidential candidate secures a majority of the electoral votes?
- A. The incumbent remains in office until a new presidential election is held.
 - B. The House of Representatives decides the winner from the top three candidates.
 - C. The Vice President assumes the role of President when the President's term is up.
 - D. The Supreme Court conducts a new election based on the top two candidates.
- _____ 30. Why did the Founders entrust the war power to the legislature?
- A. Because the legislature can mobilize armies more rapidly than the President.
 - B. Because the military is ultimately governed by the judiciary.
 - C. Because the executive is most prone to war, and legislative deliberation provides caution.
 - D. None of these

- _____ 31. What was the primary argument of the Ninth Amendment?
- A. The federal government only possesses the powers listed in the Bill of Rights.
 - B. The Bill of Rights is applicable only to state governments.
 - C. States have no rights that are not explicitly documented.
 - D. Listing specific rights does not imply that other retained rights are unprotected.
- _____ 32. What was the fundamental purpose of the Tenth Amendment?
- A. To specify that powers not delegated to the U.S. are reserved to the states or people.
 - B. To clearly define the role of the Vice President.
 - C. Listing specific rights does not imply that other retained rights are unprotected.
 - D. States have no rights that are not explicitly documented.
- _____ 33. Why are government-imposed tariffs problematic?
- A. They reduce the price of goods for average consumers, which hurt manufacturers.
 - B. They prevent the state from funding necessary infrastructure.
 - C. They are typically requested by foreign nations.
 - D. They lead to corruption and infringe upon voluntary commerce.
- _____ 34. What was the “Corwin Amendment” that Lincoln supported?
- A. An amendment intended to abolish slavery immediately
 - B. An amendment intended to eliminate all tariffs
 - C. An amendment that would have constitutionally protected slavery in the states
 - D. An amendment intended to expand the President’s power
- _____ 35. Why is the “Supremacy Clause” frequently misinterpreted by advocates of big government?
- A. They cite it while omitting the “in pursuance thereof” limitation.
 - B. They overlook that it applies exclusively to foreign treaties.
 - C. They believe it gives the states authority over the federal government.
 - D. They erroneously believe it was added by the Bill of Rights.
- _____ 36. What was John Quincy Adams’s stance on foreign policy?
- A. America should strive to become the world’s supreme power.
 - B. America should avoid searching for global problems to involve itself in.
 - C. America should actively intervene to destroy “foreign monsters.”
 - D. America should commit to permanent European alliances only with trustworthy nations.
- _____ 37. What is the meaning of “nullification”?
- A. The addition of a new law to the Constitution
 - B. Treating an illegal federal act as void and non-binding
 - C. The impeachment of a corrupt government official
 - D. None of these
- _____ 38. According to Walter Williams, what percentage of the federal budget constitutes plunder?
- A. 30 percent
 - B. 45–50 percent
 - C. 67–75 percent
 - D. 95 percent
- _____ 39. What is an “exaction”?
- A. A voluntary payment for government debt
 - B. A fair tax rate, evenly applied to everyone
 - C. Both A & B
 - D. Neither A nor B
- _____ 40. What does the term “powerful president” actually imply?
- A. A president who possesses high public approval
 - B. A president who wins an election by a substantial margin
 - C. A president who collaborates effectively with Congress
 - D. A president who bypasses constitutional constraints

American Government & Politics: A Christian Worldview – Test 8: Cumulative Final

- D 1. What is the primary standard against which a Christian should measure any law or government action?
A. The opinion of established political leaders C. Historical precedents set by earlier decisions
B. The degree to which the law promotes unity D. The authoritative standard of God's Word
- D 2. When studying the nature of government, what is a crucial realization one must reach?
A. Government can be nearly perfected through the right leadership.
B. Human institutions are often perfectible if they are secular.
C. The goal of government is to remove earthly struggle.
D. Institutions are inherently flawed because they are composed of imperfect individuals.
- C 3. According to the Bible, what is one main objective for the existence of government?
A. The punishment of theft or violence
B. The execution of justice
C. Both A & B
D. Neither A nor B
- C 4. In the context of biblical governance, what does the term "spoil" mean?
A. The distribution of resources to the poor
B. The collection of tax revenues that pay for government
C. The act of destruction, oppression, or robbery
D. The fair enforcement of civil contracts
- A 5. The Bible categorizes an "evildoer" as someone who _____.
A. commits acts like murder, assault, or theft C. hates God or his fellow man
B. speaks angrily against the ruling authority D. All of these
- B 6. When is a Christian obligated to defy the government?
A. When tax rates become unfairly burdensome or a total nuisance
B. When the state commands the individual to violate a divine command
C. Whenever the government functions as something other than a republic
D. Any of these
- D 7. Which of the following defines a "republic"?
A. A system where the leader is a monarch supported by a legislature
B. A system where the voting public decides laws directly
C. A system where the judicial branch holds absolute authority
D. A system where the people are governed by chosen representatives
- A 8. What is the primary function of separating the powers of government?
A. To minimize the ability of any single ruler to abuse authority
B. To accelerate the speed of the legislative process
C. To elevate the judicial branch to the status of supreme overseer
D. To streamline the administration of national resources
- B 9. What is meant by the assertion in Romans 13:3–4 that rulers should be a "terror to evil"?
A. They should suppress beliefs that violate government standards and principles.
B. They should serve as a deterrent to those who engage in criminal acts.
C. They should create fear in the hearts of all citizens through intimidation.
D. They should intimidate those who challenge their personal authority.
- D 10. What is the legal principle of "habeas corpus"?
A. A mandate that all individuals, regardless of status, pay a uniform tax
B. A framework for the regulation of interstate trade
C. A protocol for the professional appointment of judges
D. A requirement that a prisoner be charged with an offense or set free

- C 11. “Common law” is ____; “statutory law” is ____.
- A. enacted by legislatures; judicial
 - B. inherently unjust; usually more just
 - C. applied via precedent; written by legislatures
 - D. None of these
- C 12. Why did the Founding generation express skepticism regarding pure democracy?
- A. It was too costly for a growing nation to fund via taxation only.
 - B. It necessitated a representative body that was too large to be effective.
 - C. It enabled the majority to infringe upon the rights of the minority.
 - D. It transferred too much authority to the monarch.
- D 13. According to critics, what was a significant weakness of the Articles of Confederation?
- A. The President was able to exercise too much executive power.
 - B. The national government possessed too much control over interstate trade.
 - C. The states were forbidden from negotiating treaties with other nations.
 - D. The central government lacked the authority to tax or maintain a permanent army.
- B 14. The specific mandate for the delegates at the Constitutional Convention was to ____.
- A. draft a brand new constitution
 - B. revise the Articles of Confederation
 - C. replace the Articles with something different
 - D. None of these
- A 15. What motivated the Nationalists to support the new Constitution?
- A. Establishing a powerful central government
 - B. Protecting the sovereignty of the states
 - C. Passing a Bill of Rights
 - D. None of these
- A 16. Why are the terms “Federalist” and “Antifederalist” misleading?
- A. The Antifederalists were the actual defenders of federalism.
 - B. Both parties desired similar government structures.
 - C. Both A & B
 - D. Neither A nor B
- C 17. How should the “Necessary and Proper” clause be applied?
- A. It authorizes Congress to pass any law it finds useful.
 - B. It allows the executive to override legislative decisions.
 - C. It confines Congress to laws needed to execute specifically listed powers.
 - D. It is a secondary guideline that is not legally binding.
- D 18. Which of the following demonstrates a constitutional application of the “General Welfare” clause?
- A. Congress provides cash assistance to struggling steel manufacturers across the entire nation.
 - B. Congress passes a law regulating the types of seeds farmers are allowed to plant in order to ensure high-quality agricultural outputs.
 - C. Congress mandates that all citizens must purchase a specific type of life insurance plan so that families in every state are financially taken care of.
 - D. Congress uses taxes to pay for a defensive presence on the borders of the nation.
- C 19. Which of these demonstrates the constitutional application of the “Necessary and Proper” clause?
- A. Congress establishes a national bank, arguing that a unified financial system makes it easier for the government to manage its affairs.
 - B. Congress passes a law regulating the nutritional content of all school lunches, arguing that healthy children are “necessary” for the general welfare of the nation.
 - C. Congress creates a federal post office and, to ensure mail delivery is secure, passes a law making it a crime to steal the mail.
 - D. Congress mandates that all citizens must purchase specific healthcare insurance, saying that because Congress has the power to tax, it has the power to compel citizens to engage in commerce that makes tax collection more efficient.
- A 20. What is the primary function of the Bill of Rights?
- A. To place constraints on the U.S. government
 - B. To clarify the U.S. government’s tax-collecting process
 - C. To outline the specific duties of the executive and legislative branches
 - D. All of these

- B 21. How should we interpret the fact that the Bill of Rights was added after the initial Constitution?
- A. It was an unnecessary addition, because nearly all parties agreed on the original text.
 - B. It was a necessary compromise to reassure those skeptical of central power.
 - C. It was part of the original design from the very first meeting.
 - D. It was designed to enhance the President's executive capacity.
- B 22. What is the underlying purpose of the Electoral College?
- A. It is designed to make the election process more economical.
 - B. It prevents heavily populated areas from dominating less populated states.
 - C. It ensures that the candidate who wins the popular vote always takes office.
 - D. It allows the federal government to oversee state-run elections.
- B 23. What is the definition of "impeach"?
- A. To remove a justice from the Supreme Court bench
 - B. To subject a government official to a formal trial
 - C. To veto a bill that has been passed by the legislature
 - D. To execute a criminal sentence against a guilty person
- A 24. How can the U.S. Congress limit the Supreme Court's authority?
- A. By enacting laws that restrict the Court from ruling on specific subjects
 - B. By appointing new justices at will, as they see fit to do
 - C. By vetoing the Court's specific decisions on cases that they try in court
 - D. By impeaching the justices without a formal trial
- C 25. What does the phrase "in pursuance thereof" mean in Article VI?
- A. When Congress believes a law is necessary
 - B. When a majority in Congress votes
 - C. While adhering to the Constitution's limits
 - D. In cases that relate to foreign treaties.
- A 26. What was Benjamin Franklin's outlook regarding the publication of lies?
- A. He believed that truth would eventually triumph if allowed a fair opportunity.
 - B. He advocated for some government regulation of speech if that speech went too far.
 - C. He believed lies were occasionally necessary for successful governance.
 - D. He believed publishers should be jailed for printing clear falsehoods.
- A 27. Why do advocates for massive government expansion oppose the Second Amendment?
- A. Because it prevents the government from being the sole possessor of force
 - B. Because it hinders the government from collecting taxes
 - C. Because the text of that amendment is too brief to be easily interpreted
 - D. Because it forces the state to pay for the purchase of firearms
- C 28. Who constitutes the "militia" referenced in the Second Amendment?
- A. The National Guard of every state
 - B. The police and U.S. military
 - C. The entire body of the people
 - D. None of these
- B 29. What occurs if no U.S. presidential candidate secures a majority of the electoral votes?
- A. The incumbent remains in office until a new presidential election is held.
 - B. The House of Representatives decides the winner from the top three candidates.
 - C. The Vice President assumes the role of President when the President's term is up.
 - D. The Supreme Court conducts a new election based on the top two candidates.
- C 30. Why did the Founders entrust the war power to the legislature?
- A. Because the legislature can mobilize armies more rapidly than the President.
 - B. Because the military is ultimately governed by the judiciary.
 - C. Because the executive is most prone to war, and legislative deliberation provides caution.
 - D. None of these

- D 31. What was the primary argument of the Ninth Amendment?
- A. The federal government only possesses the powers listed in the Bill of Rights.
 - B. The Bill of Rights is applicable only to state governments.
 - C. States have no rights that are not explicitly documented.
 - D. Listing specific rights does not imply that other retained rights are unprotected.
- A 32. What was the fundamental purpose of the Tenth Amendment?
- A. To specify that powers not delegated to the U.S. are reserved to the states or people.
 - B. To clearly define the role of the Vice President.
 - C. Listing specific rights does not imply that other retained rights are unprotected.
 - D. States have no rights that are not explicitly documented.
- D 33. Why are government-imposed tariffs problematic?
- A. They reduce the price of goods for average consumers, which hurt manufacturers.
 - B. They prevent the state from funding necessary infrastructure.
 - C. They are typically requested by foreign nations.
 - D. They lead to corruption and infringe upon voluntary commerce.
- C 34. What was the “Corwin Amendment” that Lincoln supported?
- A. An amendment intended to abolish slavery immediately
 - B. An amendment intended to eliminate all tariffs
 - C. An amendment that would have constitutionally protected slavery in the states
 - D. An amendment intended to expand the President’s power
- A 35. Why is the “Supremacy Clause” frequently misinterpreted by advocates of big government?
- A. They cite it while omitting the “in pursuance thereof” limitation.
 - B. They overlook that it applies exclusively to foreign treaties.
 - C. They believe it gives the states authority over the federal government.
 - D. They erroneously believe it was added by the Bill of Rights.
- B 36. What was John Quincy Adams’s stance on foreign policy?
- A. America should strive to become the world’s supreme power.
 - B. America should avoid searching for global problems to involve itself in.
 - C. America should actively intervene to destroy “foreign monsters.”
 - D. America should commit to permanent European alliances only with trustworthy nations.
- B 37. What is the meaning of “nullification”?
- A. The addition of a new law to the Constitution
 - B. Treating an illegal federal act as void and non-binding
 - C. The impeachment of a corrupt government official
 - D. None of these
- C 38. According to Walter Williams, what percentage of the federal budget constitutes plunder?
- A. 30 percent
 - B. 45–50 percent
 - C. 67–75 percent
 - D. 95 percent
- D 39. What is an “exaction”?
- A. A voluntary payment for government debt
 - B. A fair tax rate, evenly applied to everyone
 - C. Both A & B
 - D. Neither A nor B
- D 40. What does the term “powerful president” actually imply?
- A. A president who possesses high public approval
 - B. A president who wins an election by a substantial margin
 - C. A president who collaborates effectively with Congress
 - D. A president who bypasses constitutional constraints